MONDAY EVENING, JULY 23, SUBSCRIPTION TO THE EVENING EDITION (Including Postage PER MONTH, 30c.; PER YEAR, $3.50.

VOL. 29..... NO. 9,834

Entered at the Post-Office at New York as second-class

BONAFIDE DAILY CIRCULATION DURING THE FIRST SIX MONTHS OF THIS YEAR WAS 288.267 AND THAT THIS IS AT LEAST ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND COPIES PER DAY MORE THAN THAT OF ANY OTHER NEWSPAPER IN AMERICA

BOON O-THAT THE REBULAR AVERAGE
BONA-FIDE CIRCULATION OF THE SUNDAY WORLD'S MORE THAN TWICE
AND NEARLY THREE TIMES AS LARGE AS THAT OF THE SUNDAY NEWSPAPER IN NEW YORK WHICH IN POINT OF ADVERTISING IS NEXT TO THE WORLD. TO REFUND

ALL MONEYS PAID FOR ADVER-TISING, IF, UPON A PROPER TEST THE ABOVE STATEMENT IS NOT VERIFIED.

Circulation Books Always Open.

MR. BANDALL.

THE WORLD's exclusive news from Washington this morning that SAMUEL J. RANDALL is suffering from cancer in the stomach, and that the public career of this able, honest and courageous representative is undoubtedly ended, will be received with unaffected sorrow by men of all parties who admire the high attributes that Mr. BANDALL has displayed as a public servant.

Through a long and unblemished public career Mr. RANDALL has stood up for his party when he believed it right, and for his convictions when he believed his party wrong, with a fidelity and independence as valuable as they are rare.

It is not the least of his distinctions that Mr. RANDALL has remained relatively a poor man, through a long period of service at Washington, in which he has seen scores of his associates blossom out as millionaires on a salary of $5,000.

POLICY-DEALING MUST STOP.

The arrest of another policy shop gambler, upon ewidence obtained by Evening World reporters, will show this law-defying fraternity that the war against it is still on. Hos. tilities will continue until these pocket-picking dives are closed up.

They are not only swindling shops but nurseries of vice. Worse schools for gambling could not be devised. The State outlaws them. THE EVENING WORLD proposes to help enforce the law.

The policy shops must shut down.

LET IT BE TESTED.

Major Downs, of the gallant Seventy-first Regiment, is entitled to the gratitude of the public for the stand he has taken to test the right of a corporation to make the public its servants.

He did not refuse to pay his fare. He simply declined to act as conductor for a corporation that is using a public thorough. fare for the accommodation of the people For this he was arrested and held for four hours in a police station.

The plucky Major proposes to fight it out. Would there were more like him! Twothirds of the impositions daily practised upon the public by its chartered servants are due to the fact that while everybody grumbles nobody fights.

Three cheers for the citizen soldier who is willing to fight for his rights! He will not lack for backing in such a contest.

Mr. ARTHUE BEACH, the winner of the gold double eagle in the Word-Building Contest, deserves to be congratulated. He presented an admirable list and has won the prize fairly. We confess that our sympathies were at the outset with some of the boy and girl competitors, who sent in many remarkably fine compilations, but sympathies cannot decide such a contest.

The organic Tribune says of Judge Thur-MAN that "he might make a very fair grandfather for a candidate, but as a candidate himself he is little more than a reminiscence." This is extremely courteous in a journal whose own candidate for President is merely the reminiscence of a grandfather.

The home team will be "at home" again on the Polo Grounds this afternoon, in a set-to with the Bubs from the Hub. Their splendid record on the late trip ought to insure them a rousing welcome.

This time let us hope that there will not only be at Castle Garden an investigation that investigates, but a report that will

One Was Enough (From the Norristown Herald.)

A city young man who, while summering a week country, fell in love with a pretty dairymaid, proposed and was rejected, told his frie when he returned home that he got only to it milk shake " while he was away.

PLENTY OF FRUIT TO-DAY.

Cabbage, 5 to 12 cents. Beets, 8 cents a bunch. Fresh mackerel, 20 cents Grapes, 25 cents a pound. Salmon, 85 cents a pound. Curranta, 13 cents a quart. Spanish mackerel, 10 cents. Frog legs, 50 cents a pound. Muskmelors, 10 to 25 cents. Nectarines, 40 ceuts a dozen. Watermelons, 25 to 60 cents each. Raspberries, 7 cents; best, 10 cents. Raspberries, 12 cents; best 15 cents. Peaches, 50 cents a dozen; best, 75 cents Tomatoes, 10 cents a quart; best, 20 cents. Plums-Small, 25 cents a dozen; large, 50 cents principal cities.

WOOKS.

Hudson.

$800 a year.

depreciated bills.

SOME PEOPLE'S VACATIONS.

Tom Brady will spend a couple of weeks up the W. J. Brown will make a two weeks' tour of the Henry Rollinson will will go to Summit, N. J.

John G. Snyder has returned to this city from his

One of the livellest fellows in the drug trade is genial '' Uncle Eddy " Smith. There was a suspi-cious bulge in the region of his breast pocket when WORLDLINGS.

One of the richest men in St. Paul, who owns block after block of real estate, lives on less than

The paper money of Chin is so depreciated in value that a guest at a botel ordinarily pays $500 u day for his accommodation. At one time only a few years ago called sold for $2,000 a yard in these

Perhaps the best paid woman writer in this coun try is Mrs. Southworth, who receives an income of $7,000 a year from the New York Ledger. Mary E.

In 1810 Henry Mogel, father of County Treasurer Mogel, of Reading, Pa., caught a turtle on his farm and cut into its back the initials " H. M., 810." It was not seen again until a few days ago when the County Treasurer discovered it alive and well not more than forty feet from where his

While a game of pasenall was in progress in Dallas, Tex., a few days ago, a player, in attempting to steal second base, disappeared from sight as suddenly and as completely as if the earth had swallowed him up. He had broken through the ground into an old well, the existence of which had been forgotten, and was rescued standing u

A Successful Way to Put It.

"No. Mr. Smith," she said, gently but firmly,

Albert Haight, Judge of the New York Supreme Court, is stopping at the Bartholdt. Warren Gona, of Louisville, Ky., and F. W. La Rue, of Cincinnati, are at the Albemarie.

At the Astor to-day are W. D. Olney, of Walt-Daniel H. McMillan, of Buffalo, and A. Meade Smith, of Norfolk, Vs., are stopping at the Hoff-Carcy A. Wilson, of Mobile, and C. A. Mo-Laughlin, of Toronto, are at the Fifth Avenue Hotel to-day.

W. D. Wcaver, Assistant Engineer, U. S. N. Gard T. Lyon, of Cawego, and A. D. Barr, of Rochesier, are guests of the Grand Hotel.

Stopping at the Sturtevant House are Gov. B. J. Biggs. of Delaware; James Frost, of Mempula, Tenn., and F. A. Aldrich, of Cincinnati.

St. James guests to-day include Col. James E. Penper, of Lexington, Ky.; F. B. Squire, of Cleveland, and E. H. Bright, of New Orleans.

Gliscy House hospitality is extended to Peter White, of Dublin, Ireland; Judge R. S. Prinde-ville, of Chicago, and D. G. Evans, of St. Louis,

George R. Gray, of Coldwater, Mich.; Barvey

One of Many Letters.

I cannot but say that THE EVENING WORLD is a great paper. Not only it brings all the ing something extraordinary. For instance your enigmas, &c. To pass the evenings at nome, they are not only interesting, but at the same time very instructive to young and old. I could sooner be without a meal than

without your bright paper, THE EVENING

WORLD. Take this from one who is not a flatterer. A. M. Lawis, 1497 Third avenue.

boy's enigma.

[Inclosed was a correct answer to the news.

There Will Be More of Them.

I am with you in your work. I am sorry you gave up the trade-union sketches. I was n hope to hear from the textile workers, es.

Agreed with Her.

[From the Fonkers Statesman.]

Mrs. Yeast-Do you buy your eggs at Short-

Mrs. Bacon-Why, certainly; his eggs can't be

'I can never be your wife.'

to his neck in loy water.

Byan, one of the new writers, from the So father had found it seventy-eight years before.

arns an income of $6,000 by her pen.

C. P. Poliett will spend two weeks with vacation. He travelled through Pennsylvania.

friend, George Mansfield, in Lowell, Mass.

he left the city for Baltimore recently.

1,485 Words.

Thomas F. White will visit Saratoga and Niagara Albert Nuttall will go to Fishkill for a couple of

> The Word-building Contest is over! The Victor is determined, and the Eagle has pointed his nose towards Brooklyn. He will spread his golden wings and fly to 300 Sumner avenue, where it will find rest in the pocket of Mr. Arthur Beach, who distanced all competitors with a list of 1,485 words.

and several pounds of meat off his bones,

Mr. Beach received him in his study. He is a man of medium height, thirty-six years of age, of rather slender build, with a thick head of hair and dark blue eyes. He received

MB. ABTHUR BEACH,

'This is not the first time I have won prize at this sort of contest," he said. " I received one from the Judge competition. The sentence then was: 'Who will be our next President?' I was always fond of working at things like this. When I was a boy we used to take some word, appoint a timekeeper, and then see how many words we could make from the letters of the word in a few minutes.

"June was a very dull month, my family were away, and so I amused my idle hours with making out the list. How many hours t took I cannot tell, but there were a good many given to the task."

"What was your method?" asked THE EVENING WORLD MAN.

"First, I took the letters, arranged them alphabetically, saw the E could be taken with the letters, and started in on the dictionaries If one is going to attempt a thing of this nature, there is no use in doing it in a

I had worcester's and Webster's unabridged dictionaries, of 1884. There has been no enlarged edition later than that. I began with Webster and went all through it. I first saw if the letter itself was a word, as O or I. Then I went on tell I came to the first letter that could be used after the letter, E. for instance, after D, and so on. After this I did the same with Worcester, and then excised lege. At his university he was also first henor man and Faculty prize man. He has a number of other medals for successes in dif-ferent competitions, so he he is a formidable opponent in any fight for honors. He beto make up the title of the paper. Those who have so carefully and patiently compiled the lists can form the best idea of what an Herculean task fell to those who had to correct them.

the work was done, while two or three others have spoken feelingly about a vacation. But they have the soothing conviction that no pains were spared to secure a perfectly im-may be some reclamations against ecision. Some of the lists contained twenty-six or twenty seven hundred words. Many of them were prepared with the greatest care and neatness. The victorious list showed a good deal of method in the work. Every word was numbered, the words were on sheets of the same size, and if the word pecially the Carpet-Workers' Union. I am a factory lad myself. Have been in this city near three years. I worked for the Ten-Hour law in Massachusetts till we got it.

WM. Kershaw,
325 West Forty-second street. was at all uncommon a note explained where was at all uncommon a note explained where it was found.

Miss Addie Plunkett, of Cooper, Passaic County, N. J., had a very carefully prepared list, and Master Oliver Digby-Digby's neatly ordered columns of typewritten words deserve special mention.

In correcting the lists the rules were carefully followed, according to the original scheme published in The Evening World, when the contest was proposed, and rulings printed in the paper subsequently in answer to questions. Only one part of the verb could be used, and the letters E and N were the only ones which could be used more than once in a word, and the words were to be found in the dictionaries of Worcester and Webster. Moreover, the same word, with different meanings, or different spellings with the one meaning, were also excluded.

Violation of these rules thinned the ranks very perceptibly. Duplicating other letters than the E and N was a common fault. Using two parts of the verb was also a frequent alin.

Among some of the best contestants were beat.
Mrs. Yeast—I know it; that's the reason I don't thing they're good.

15 W. 134th st.; Charles N. More, Somerville, N. J.; Edward Olley, Brooklyn; Annie Claus, 211 E. 39th st.; Minnie S. Towne, 158 E. 127th st.; E. M. Finley, 2510 8th ave.; Hannah C. Stumpf, 118 Montgomery st., Trenton, N. J.; Louise F. Bowers, 562 Warren street, Newark, N. J.; S. S. Black; Lloyd Tefft, 614 Carleton ave., Brooklyn; Mamie Cahill, 2011 2d ave.; James F. Campbell, 205 W. 57th st.; Miss M. Davies, 7 Murray st.; May De Witt, 1021 Church st., Lynchburg, Va.; Miss R. Korns, 203 E. 116th st., and D. J. Jennings, 380 Grand st.

Some of the longer lists were submitted by J. Barnie Perrin, Bridgeport, Conn., who sent in a list of 2,898 words, but many were repeated; T. J. McConnell, who thought he had 2,640, but not only were letters duplicated, but sometimes letters not in The Eveniko World were used; George Baum, jr., who claimed the same number and committed the same faults, besides using proper names; Dave Griffin, an ambitious eightvear-old, who sent in a little volume of 2,444, but who tripped up frequently, though he made a good showing for his vears. Dollie year-old, who sent in a little volume of 2,444, but who tripped up frequently, though he made a good showing for his years; Dollie Sturgis, 2,300 words, was also a victim to the duplicated letters; E. S. Thomas, 2,347 words, but the usual faults of the longer lists; Isabel M. Bole, who as her predecessor, went above 2,000, and came down to hundreds; James M. Weaver sent 2,031 and A. B. Sellen 2,000, but there were always the same faults.

of such a number of contestants was very fine. They will probably recognize in the printed winning list of Mr. Beach how the others were revised. A number of possible words were wanting, even in his list.

So, with good wishes to all the army of word-builders, the Bureau of Revision rests from its labors with a sense of work well done, both by those who constructed and those who denolished the long columns of words from "The Evenino World,"

THE WINNING LIST.

Mr. Arthur Beach's Corrected List Contains 1,483 Words.

(Wore, Nun.), Owl., Owler, Owler, Owling, Own (a.), Owned (imp. of owned, v., Web.), Owned, Owred, N., Web.), Owned, Ref. Red., Red., Red., Red., Redlent, Redlent, Redolent, Redinote (Web. and Wore, Sup.), Red-oil, Red, wing, Ree, Reed, Reeden, Receding, Reel (n.), Reeling (imp. of Reel, v., Wet.), Reeling (imp. owned), Reeling, V.), Reling, Reeling, Reeling, Reeling, V.), Reling, Reeling, Reeling, V.), Reling, Reeling, Re Here is the winning list, presented by Mr.

Arthur Beach, and containing 1,485 words:

DEER, Deg. Degener (Web.), Degree, D. hort (Worc.), Deign, Delinte (Worc. Sup.), Deli, Delic, Delicte, Delette, Denting, Den Dene (Worc. Sup.), Deuist, Dennet, Denote, Dentine, Dentine, Dentine, Dere (Worc.), Derive, Dern. Dero. Dentile, Dentine, Dere (Worc.), Derive, Dero. Dero. Devo. (Worc. Sup.), Deviet, Devoir, Devonite, Devoite (No.), Derown, Devoite, Devoite (No.), Derown, Devoite, Deletter, Dig. Digreent (Web.), Dign, Dingle, Dingle Here is the winning list, presented by Mr. Arthur Beach, and containing 1,485 words: Wore.), Roved (amp. of Rove. v., Roving (h.), Row, v., Wore.), Rowed (an), Wore.), Rowing (p., p. of Row, v., Wore.), Rowed, Rowen (wore. Sup.), Rowine (Wore. Sup.), Rowine (Wore. Sup.), Rowell, Rowen, Rown (wore. Sup.), Rowine (Wore. Sup.), Tebe. (wore.), Ted. Tebe. (wore.), Ted. Tebe. (a.), Teneed (amp. of Tenee, v. de.), Ted. Tebe. Teo., Tender (amp. of Tenee, v. de.), Ted. Teneerion, Tender, Tender, Tendering, Tenderion, Tender, Tender, Tendering, Tenderion, Tender, Core. Sup.), Tenou (Wore., Sup.), Tenou, Tenor. Teredine (Web.), Teredo, Terip., Tern. Fern. Cwore. Sup.), Tennon, Tew. (h., Wore.), Tewed (imp. of Tew. v., Web.), Tewel, The, Thee, Theog., Theine. Their, Then, Theow (Wore. Sup.), Three, Theorem, Thereon, Thew. Thewed, Thieve, Think.), Thing, Thinned (mp. of Thin, v.) Thinner (h.), Third, Thirl, Tho (adv., Wore.), Thole (v. l.), Thong (h.), Thorn (h.), Thorn (imp. of Thorn, v. l.), Thowel, Three threeling, (Wore. Sup.), Three, Threede, (Web.), Threw, Thrid, Thring, (Wore.), Throng three, Threnote, (Web.), Throng, Throng, (h.), Thronged, (imp. of Throng, Web.), Throng, (h.), Thronged, (imp. of Throng, Web.), Throng, (h.), Throwel, Three, Theo., Thronged, (imp. of Throng, Web.), Throng, (h.), Throw, Thid, Third, Th

49 SPLIT IN TWO.

Cmp. of low, v., Web.), Lowe, Lower (ad). comp. of low, ad)., Lowered (Imp. of lower, v., Web.), Lowering (a.), Lown (Wore.), Lowing (a.), Lown (Wore.), Lowering (w.), Med. (a.), Lown (Wore.), Lown (Wore.), Lown. (Wore.), Needer, Needele, Needler, Needele, Needler, Needele, Needler, Needele, Needle, Needler, Needele, Needle, Needl Master Workman Quinn Takes Bis Follower to Another Hall and Holds a Scotton. As foreshadowed in THE EVENING WORLD. split has occurred in District Assembly No

49, and the two factions have set up separate organizations, each claiming that it is the only simon-pure 49. When the delegates assembled yesterday

When the delegates assembled yesterday afternoon at Pythagoras Hall, Master Workman James E. Quinn observed that Worthy Foreman P. J. McGrath and Judge Advocate David J. Naughton were in the hall. Mr. Quinn declared that he would not open the assembly until those persons went out, because they were suspended members.

They would not go, and amid much confusion, shouting and groaning Quinn took the charter, and calling upon all who desired so to do to follow him he walked out of the hall accompanied by his friends.

They went to 98 Forsyth street, where a conclave was held, at which it was said that 112 local assemblies were represented, and the number was increased to 137 before adjournment.

journment.
Quinn's followers averred that more business was done and more harmony prevailed ness was done and more harmony prevalled than ever before.

The decision of the General Executive Board sustaining Quinn was read.

Among those who joined Quinn were T. P. Quinn, Hugh Carey, George Murray and the Secretary. Edward Kunze. Quinn's opponents were surprised at Mr. Kunze's course, for they had counted on his allegiance to their side.

nen's were surprised at Mr. Kunze's course, for they had counted on his allegiance to their side.

The delegates left in Pythagoras Hall included the Beard of Trustees and Treasurer, who control the building.

Worthy Foreman McGrath opened the meeting with the seals of five local assemblies attached to a piece of paper as a substitute for a charter. This course was deemed according to the law of the Knights of Labor.

Delegates from both sides discussed the situation after the meetings closed. Each side claimed that it was the only genuine assembly, but neither could say what the outcome would be.

Quinn's friends asser ed that be had been sustained by the General Executive Board, and that body would recognize him as the only person duly qualified to open the assembly and conduct its work.

On the other hand, Quinn's opponents declared that he had endeavored without cause to suspend the leading representatives in the assembly because they are opposed to him, and he had tried gag law and questionable means generally to keep in power when the sentiment of the large majority of the delegates was against him.

The whole matter will probably be dis-sentiment of the large majority of the dele-gates was against him.

The whole matter will probably be dis-cossed by the General Executive Board of the order at its next meeting in Philadelphis, but is scarcely probable that the difficulty will be settled until it is discussed and acted upon in the General Assembly, which meets at Indianapolis in October.

TO DISCUSS MAYOR HEWITT.

Central Labor Union Committee Wil Hold a Consultation in the Hartt Case.

The Central Labor Union did not put itself n record yesterday as directly opposing Typographical Union No. 6 in its opposition to Typographia No. 7. Some months ago No. 6 resigned from the

Some months ago No. 6 resigned from the Central Union, but was never acted on by the inter until yesterday, when the resignation was accepted by a close vote.

Some delegate got in a resolution to the effect that organized labor patronize those printing offices only where union men are employed who are represented in the Central Union. This will include about all of the printing establishments, for the reason, that there are four unions of pressure muloyed there are four unions of pressmen employed in them who are represented in the Centra Union.

Congressman O'Neill's Anti-Convict Labor bill, prohibiting the sale of prison-made goods outside of the State in which they are manufactured, was indorsed and the request made that the bill be so amended as to prohibit the use of convict-made goods outside of the penal institutions in which they are made.

A special meeting was arranged for Wednesday night at 145 Eighth street for the purpose of inquiring into the sanity of Mayor Hewitt, with special reference to the Odber M. Hartt case, and a so into the matter of tenement-house cigars.

A Labor Leader Inderses the Mills Bill. INFECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
PITTSBUIG, July 23.—John D. Hughes, the organizer of the first Knight of Labor Assembly in Europe, has strongly indorsed the Mills bill.

Notes of Labor.

The Ciothing Trades Section will meet to-night. Legal proceedings are threatened in the "49"

Amos J. Cummings is talked of as a Labor candidate for Mayor. only in their Labor Day procession. The Concord Labor Club will meet on the third Sunday of each month hereafter at 189 Bowery. In danapolis Union printers are opposed to Har-rison because John C. New does not employ union compositors in the Journal office.

An alliance between the Brotherhood of Telegraphers and the International Typographical Union is talked of for defensive reasons. P. J. McGuire, of the Brotherhood of Carpenters, says he is not a candidate for the office of United States Commissioner of the Department of Labor.

Labor.

The Arbitration Committee of the Central Labor Union will inquire into the case of Mr. Schratzki, the Harlem furniture manufacturer who caused the arrest of a man for distributing circulars in his

Pollie Tried to Protect Her Mother. "He assaulted my mother, and I tried to pro

The speaker was Police McDonald, a variety actress living at 229 Mott street, who appeared in the Tembs Police Court this morning, holding a handkerchief to her head which was covered with coagulated blood from an ugly cut just over her left ear.

The girl's drunken father, James McDonald, was held in $1,000 to answer to her charge of assault.

Manager Babbitt Dead. William M. Babbitt, manager of Pat Rooney's place. He was a well-known theatrical manager a member of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks' and Actors' Fund. His relatives, who re-side in Taunton, Mass., have been notified, and will arrange for the iuneral. The Elks' Lodge have taken charge of the rem

A Desperate Case.

[From the Washington Critic.]
Tom (wearily)-Another conquest, Arthur. I do wish the girls wouldn't fall in love with me s Arthur-Why the deuce don't you keep away from them?

Tom-Good gwacious, old fel, the wemedy is worse than the disease, don't you know. Had Heard of Him-

[From the San Francisco Examiner.] Boston School Teacher—Now, children, can you tell me the name of the English nobleman who did gross services to humanity and whom we all ought to remember here in Boston 7 Childron—harquis of Queensberry!

A Fair Trial

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla will convince any reasonable person that it does possess great medicinal merit. We do not claim that every bottle will accomplish a miracle, but we do know that nearly every bottle, taken accord-

"I was run down from close application to work, but was told I hav malaris and was dosed with quinine, &c., which was useless. I decided to take Hood's Sarsapa-rills and am now feeling strong and cheerful. I feel satisfied it will benefit any who give it a fair trial." W.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Bold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only C. 1. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 DOMES ONE DOLLAR

EXILED JOSIE SHEPHARD.

THE INDENTURING COMMITTEE WILL DE-CIDE HIS CASE TO-NIGHT.

There Will Be the Grandmother and Other Friends Anxiously Waiting for the Committee's Report-Affidavits to Be Presented and What They Will Show-Let the Boy Come Back.

THE EVENING WORLD during the past two weeks has maintained silence in regard to the popular demand for the return of little Josie Shephard, who was hustled away to a strange abiding place in a far Western State by " the powers that be " at the Juvenile Asylum in this city. THE EVENING WORLD has no desire to seemingly prejudice the decision of the Indenturing Committee, which now has the case in hand.

Chairman Charles D. Adams, who has manifested a disposition to act justly in this matter, has made a searching investigation and will report to the committee to-night at a meeting to be held at the House of Beception, in Thirteenth street.

Grandmother Shephard, whose unswerving love and devotion to the exiled child has excited the sympathies of readers of THE EVEN. ING WORLD, will be present at the meeting to welcome a report which may restore to her welcome a report which may restore to her the boy upon whom her affections have been con entrated, or to weep over a cruel decision which may keep little Josie in exie.

Which shall it be?
Audrew Grant, manager of the Consolidated tea store, at the corner of Ninth avenue and Forty-first street, will also be present, with his wife, at the meeting of the committee to-night, to reasser, his willingness to adopt the boy, give him a comfortable home
and educate him.
Lawyer De Lancev Nicoll will appear and

and educate him.

Lawyer De Lancey Nicoll will appear and plead or justice for the banished orphan and his longing resatives.

Affidavits will be presented showing that during the past year transformorber Shephard during the past year transformorber for the custody of Josie Shephard and she had been promised it; that she had complied with the directions given by the society's superintendent; that the boy was sent away without her knowledge or consent and that Andrew Grant had made known to Supt. Carpenter his desire to adopt the child.

knowledge or consent and that Andrew Grant had made kno wn to Supt. Carpenter his desire to adopt the child.

The sworn statements of reputable citizens that Mr. Grant is a man of good morals and able to support and educate Josie Shephard will be read to the Indenturing Committee Chairman Adams has instructed Mr. Wright, Indenturing Agent of the society in Illinois, not to indenture Josie Shephard, if the has not already done it, antil he receives instructions from the committee.

The details of this case have been read with intense interest by pa rons of The Evening World, and the public pulse quickens at mention of the name of Josie Shephard. Since the abduction of Charley Ross no similar case has attracted so widespread attention as that of Josie Shephard, and if the exiled boy is returned to New York he will find his popularity unbounded. Doubtless many friends of the little lad and the aged grandmother will attend the hearing of the case this evening.

The prayer of the people is "Bring back the exiled boy."

FUN FOR AFTER DINNER.

A Singular Coincidence. [From Nime.]
Benson (entering Newport Casino)—Where have Cathcart-Called on that rich and hideous heiress, Miss Smith. Thank heavens she was out. (Exent twenty young men.)

Miss Smith (at home next day)—Strange that thirty-seven genilemen should have left their cards last night—just the night when I was not at home.

[From Harper's Baser.] "Well, father, you must congratulate me. Your remark that my attentions to Miss Holme leigh had been so apparent that people were talk-ing, coupled with your statement that I ought to propose at once, set me to thinking as to my duty, and I proposed to her."

"And see accepted you?"

"No, indeed. She refused me, and I'm the happiest man in the White Mountains to-day."

A Calamity in One Sense.

First Literary Man-What a lucky thing it is that they saved all the manuscript in the Century Magazine fire? Second Literary Man (gloomily)—I don't think

" Why not?" " Because if that had burned up there might have "Perhaps you are right. I hadn't thought of A Wretch.

(From Time.)
She (sentimentally)—In the spring all nature smiles, the birds woo, lovers kies, but, shi thes omes winter.
He—I know some things that kies all the year around and never change. She—Impossible! What? He (calmiy)—Billiard bails.

CUT THIS OUT.

Why Spoil Your Summer by Missing "The Evening World?"

It Will Take But a Minute to Fill Out the Blank Below.

For the convenience of the readers of The Evening World" who are leaving the city for a vacation or who live out of town throughout the summer the following blank is prepared. If you desire to have "The Evening World" sent regularly to you in the country or by the seashore, write your address in the space reserved for it, state the number of months, one or more, for which the paper is desired, and the amount inclosed.

The subscription for "The Evening World" is thirty cents per month, which includes postage. Remittance may be made by postal note, express or United States money order or in stamps, as may be most convenient.

To the Cashier EVENING WORLD .

Inclosed find cents in payment for THE EVENING WORLD for months. Have the paper forwarded to the fol-

The above should be inclosed in an envelope addressed to THE EVENING WORLD.

Got What He Wanted.

Simpson-Do you know why Freshley went down Thompson-Said he wanted experiencliement.
Simpson—Is he getting it, do you suppose ?
Tuomason—Isn't he, though. Married a widow with four children.

THE EAGLE WINNER.

Mr. Arthur Beach, of Brooklyn, the Champion Word-Builder.

His Carefully Prepared List After Correction Contained

Many Competitors Sent in More Words, But Their Lists Did Not Stand the Test-Some Most Excellent Competitions Submitted by the Girls and Boys - Dr. Beach's Scientific Method of Procedure-He Had Won in a Similar Contest Before -Our Congratulations to Him on His Victory, and to All Others for the Admirable Work Accomplished.

after all corrections had been made.

The attenuated Word-building Editor, with two or three thousand new words in his head waited on Mr. Beach to acquaint him with the news and learn something about the way he compiled his list.

the news without great surprise.

The successful Word-Builder.

Then he struggled to his feet, and said, in broken three times, N twice, and the rest only once, tones, "Are all my hopes to be thus dashed to pleces? Am I never to be known as the husband of the beautiful Mrs. Smith?"
This was too much for the girl, and she succumbed. Then I took a little time to familiarize myself nappy-go-lucky way.

"I had Worcester's and Webster's una-did the same with Worcester, and then excised from the second list every word in the first.

"In the longer words there is more danger of doubling a letter, and I had to look out for that. This was my whole method." said Mr. Beach, smiling. "and I have enjoyed the diversion very well."

Mr. Arthur Beach was born in 1852, and was graduated as first honor man and valedictorian of the Class of '72, at the City College. At his university he was also first opponent in any fight for honors. He belongs to several co-operative mutual benefit associations, and has an official position in the Society of Select Guardians.

Congratulations, Mr. Beach,
No one can appreciate the extraordinary labor involved in correcting the countless lists which poured into the office of The Evening World in active competition for the prize offered to the most successful builders of words from the letters which go to make up the title of the paper. Those Callds, the tron manufacturer, of Pittsburg; A. W. Rosson, of Chicago, and E. H. Wildberger, of Mississippi, are recorded as stopping at the Hotel Brunswick. news sooner than any other evening paper in the city, but also it is very interesting in do-

Herculean task fell to those who had to cor-rect them.

An immense clothesbasket, two waste-paper baskets and two wooden boxes were full of lists. A corps of several revisers has been steadily employed at the task since the lists were closed.

Poor fellows; they look thin and worn, and one of them had to take to his bed before the work was done, while two or three others partial judgment.

Naturally, many will be disappointed, and Even (ad.), Evene, Event (dup. Even., v. a.), Evener, Evening. Event, Event (dorc.), Event. Even. Ger. (dorc.), Evident. Evil., Evil. (dorc.), Evident. Evil., Evil. (dorc.), Evil. Twirled (imp. of Twirl, v.), Two, Twolling (Word. Sup.)

VEER, Veering (n. Word,), Vegete, Vell (n.), Velled (imp. of Vell v., Web.), Velned, Velned, Vennel, Velned, Velned, Vennel, Velned, Vennel, Vernel, Vennel, Vennel, Vennel, Vennel, Vennel, Vennel, Vernel, Vernel, Vernel, Vernel, Vennel, Vennel, Vennel, Vennel, Vennel, Vennel, Vennel, Vernel, Vennel, Vennel,

To the Editor of The Evenine World:

My answer to the "Printers' Pi Puzzle'

Hove (h.), Hover (h.), Hovered (imp. hover, v.), How, Howel, However, How (u.). Howing (imp. of howl.), Web., Howler, Howling (Worc.), How (w.), H is that "THE EVENING WORLD is the best, the brightest and the cheapest." "Them is my sentiments." Answer to the newsboy's enigma is: "The World is the best want medium." E. DWYER. 84 Catharine street. He Wins the Bet.

(web. and Wore, Sqp.), Virego (Wore, Sup.), Vireton, Virge, Virgo, Voles, Veed, Wee, Veed, Weed, Wee, Weed, Wheel, Weed, Wheel, While, While,

Them's His Sentiments

This is the answer to the newsboy's enigma-

THE WORLD is the best want medium.

In the Editor of The Evening World :

Please insert my name if this is right, as I have a bet on this, and oblige a steady reader of your paper.

Henry Manthen, of your paper.

HENRY MANTNER

5 Bond street, New York City, July 19. A Pieneaut Tack. Fo the Editor of The Evening World: Inclosed find answer to the newsboy's

Seems to Prove It. [From the Pitteburg Chronicle.]

ow do you know ?" saked the Rorse Editor, her named the goddess of miscular Ate."

enigms. I take great delight in solving them for your charming paper. JULIUS MORGENSTEIN. 566 Grand street, New York, July 19.

ing to directions, does produce positive benefit. Its pe-

B. BRAMISH, 261 Spring street, New York City

cultar curative power is shown by many res